This Week's Feature

Let's Get Together with A Free EXTENDED Membership Through September 1!

The Chamber is excited to announce our Hartford's Better Together campaign has been extended! The campaign provides businesses located in the City of Hartford with FREE membership to the Hartford Chamber of Commerce through September 1, 2020. Our goal is to showcase the benefits of being a Chamber Member and the influences that a strong, unified business community can have in Hartford.

News & Notes

Takeout and Takeover | Make Music Hartford 2020 — Hartford businesses, including those providing takeout orders, can register their social media channel as a “virtual venue” for local musicians to “takeover” on June 21 in celebration of Make Music Hartford. Register your virtual venue today!

Buy Local to Keep Safe And Save Local — Do you know about a Hartford business producing personal protective equipment (e.g., masks, hand sanitizer, gloves, face shields) or anything else businesses need right now? We'd love to share the information. Let us know!

REOPEN HARTFORD — Join us for a webinar featuring Hartford city officials who will review the business reopening process, answer questions, and provide clarification. The event takes place Friday, June 5 at 10:00 a.m. Register to attend.

Chamber Conversations — Virtually network with Hartford businesses for an in-depth conversation on Friday, June 12 at 9:00 a.m. The event is limited to 15 Chamber members. Register to attend.

Member Spotlight

Workonex

Workonex Founder Richard Pummel spoke to the Hartford Chamber of Commerce about the company's innovative app:

Workonnex provides real-time insight into employee sentiment about their job, the company and its culture, and facilitates meaningful coaching from leadership. Workonnex also provides data on employee well-being and identifies if they are at risk of stress, anxiety, and burnout.

To provide companies with a tool that can help support employees through these difficult times, Workonnex is offering our software free until September 1. Visit workonnex.com to learn more about our software.
