

THE BULLETIN BOARD

Statement from MetroHartford and Chamber

“The Hartford Chamber of Commerce is a proud group representing all races of business owners. We take this opportunity to express our solidarity with the Black community in our great city and throughout the world. Silence in this matter is unacceptable. We commit to end racism. Period,” says Max Kothari, Chair, Hartford Chamber of Commerce.

An Open Letter from the President and Chief Executive
Officer of the MetroHartford
Alliance, David Griggs

METROHARTFORD
ALLIANCE

READ NOW

News & Notes

REOPEN HARTFORD — If you have any questions about reopening your business, listen to our webinar featuring Hartford city officials who reviewed the process, answered questions, and provided clarification. Listen Now

Phase 2 Reopening — For more information on Phase 2 Reopening Rules for June 17 Read the DECD Sector Rules and Certification for Reopen

Buy Local to Keep Safe And Save Local — Do you know about a Hartford business producing personal protective equipment (e.g., masks, hand sanitizer, gloves, face shields) or anything else businesses need right now? We'd love to share the information. Let us know!

Takeout and Takeover | Make Music Hartford 2020 — Hartford businesses, including those providing takeout orders, can register their social media channel as a “virtual venue” for local musicians to “takeover” on June 21 in celebration of Make Music

Member Spotlight

Dash Legacy, LLC

Why did Dash Legacy Founder Derrick Shirley join the Hartford Chamber of Commerce? "If you're doing business in Hartford, you should be part of the Chamber if nothing else, so you can connect with other business owners."

He says the best thing about living and working in Hartford is, "The people. The Hartford vibe is like no other. You walk Hartford. You talk Hartford. No matter where you go, you are Hartford!"

LEARN MORE

Become a member

Let's partner and serve as Hartford's voice of the business community. Become a member. Any businesses located in Hartford can join the Chamber for Free through September 1, 2020. Our goal is to showcase the benefits of being a chamber member and influences that a strong, unified business community can have in Hartford.

Membership Info

HARTFORD
★CHAMBER
OF COMMERCE

A MetroHartford Alliance Initiative

