

THE BULLETIN BOARD

This Week's Feature

State of Connecticut Reopen Guidelines

The Connecticut Department of Economic and Community Development has provided downloadable rules and guidelines by sector for hair salons and barbershops, museums and zoos, offices, restaurants, and retail and malls planning to reopen on May 20th.

FIND OUT MORE

News & Notes

Rx for Cheer fundraiser — Join Hartford Hospital for their Virtual Wine Tasting on Friday, May 15 from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Ticket or Sponsorship purchases grant exclusive access to the livestream event. Custom recipe cards and videos will be provided to guests prior to the event. LEARN MORE AND REGISTER

What's on your event calendar? — Visit our Hartford.com Livestream calendar for ideas. From music while you eat to forums to workout classes. You'll have a full calendar! CHECK IT OUT

Something to look forward to! Shannon Mumley, Director of Small Business Development, gets a sneak peek at the Parkville Market. TAKE A LOOK

Respond to the 2020 Census

Health clinics. Fire departments. Schools. Roads and highways. The census can shape many different aspects of your community. Your response matters.

Shape your future
START HERE >

United States®
Census
2020

COMPLETE THE CENSUS

Member Spotlight

Capital Spirits

Ankit Harpaldas, Founder and Owner of Capital Spirits and Dhaba Wala Indian Kitchen, talks to the Hartford Chamber of Commerce about locating and growing his businesses in downtown.

“Downtown Hartford is a very unique place because the opportunity is endless here,” he says.

“It’s a small city that’s growing very quickly. If you’re willing to give it some patience and grow with it, I think you can find much success here.”

READ MORE

Join

Let’s partner and serve as Hartford’s voice of the business community. Become a member. Now through August 1, 2020, businesses in the Capital City can enjoy a three-month free membership to the Hartford Chamber of Commerce. FIND OUT MORE

HARTFORD
★ CHAMBER
OF COMMERCE

A MetroHartford Alliance Initiative

